

Nature education: What are we doing at home and abroad?

literature review

One World Learning is an international environmental education initiative bringing together best practices in this field from five European countries and the wider BirdLife Europe partnership.

Contact

42
respondents

36
organisations

23
BirdLife partners

Nature education: What are we doing at home and abroad?
literature review

90.5%

of respondents
work on environmental education programs

How many years have you been running your program?

Who are the participants in the programs?

Nature education: What are we doing at home and abroad?
literature review

Who are the participants in the programs?

Nature education: What are we doing at home and abroad?
literature review

libraries

64,3% teachers

organisations do collaborations

schools

youth groups

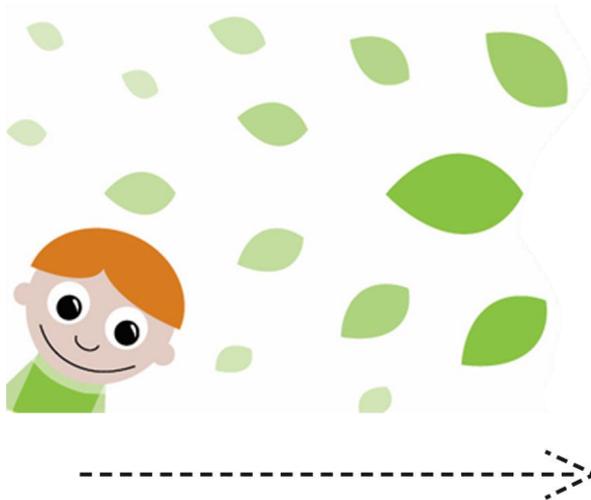

public organisation

museums

universities

NGOs

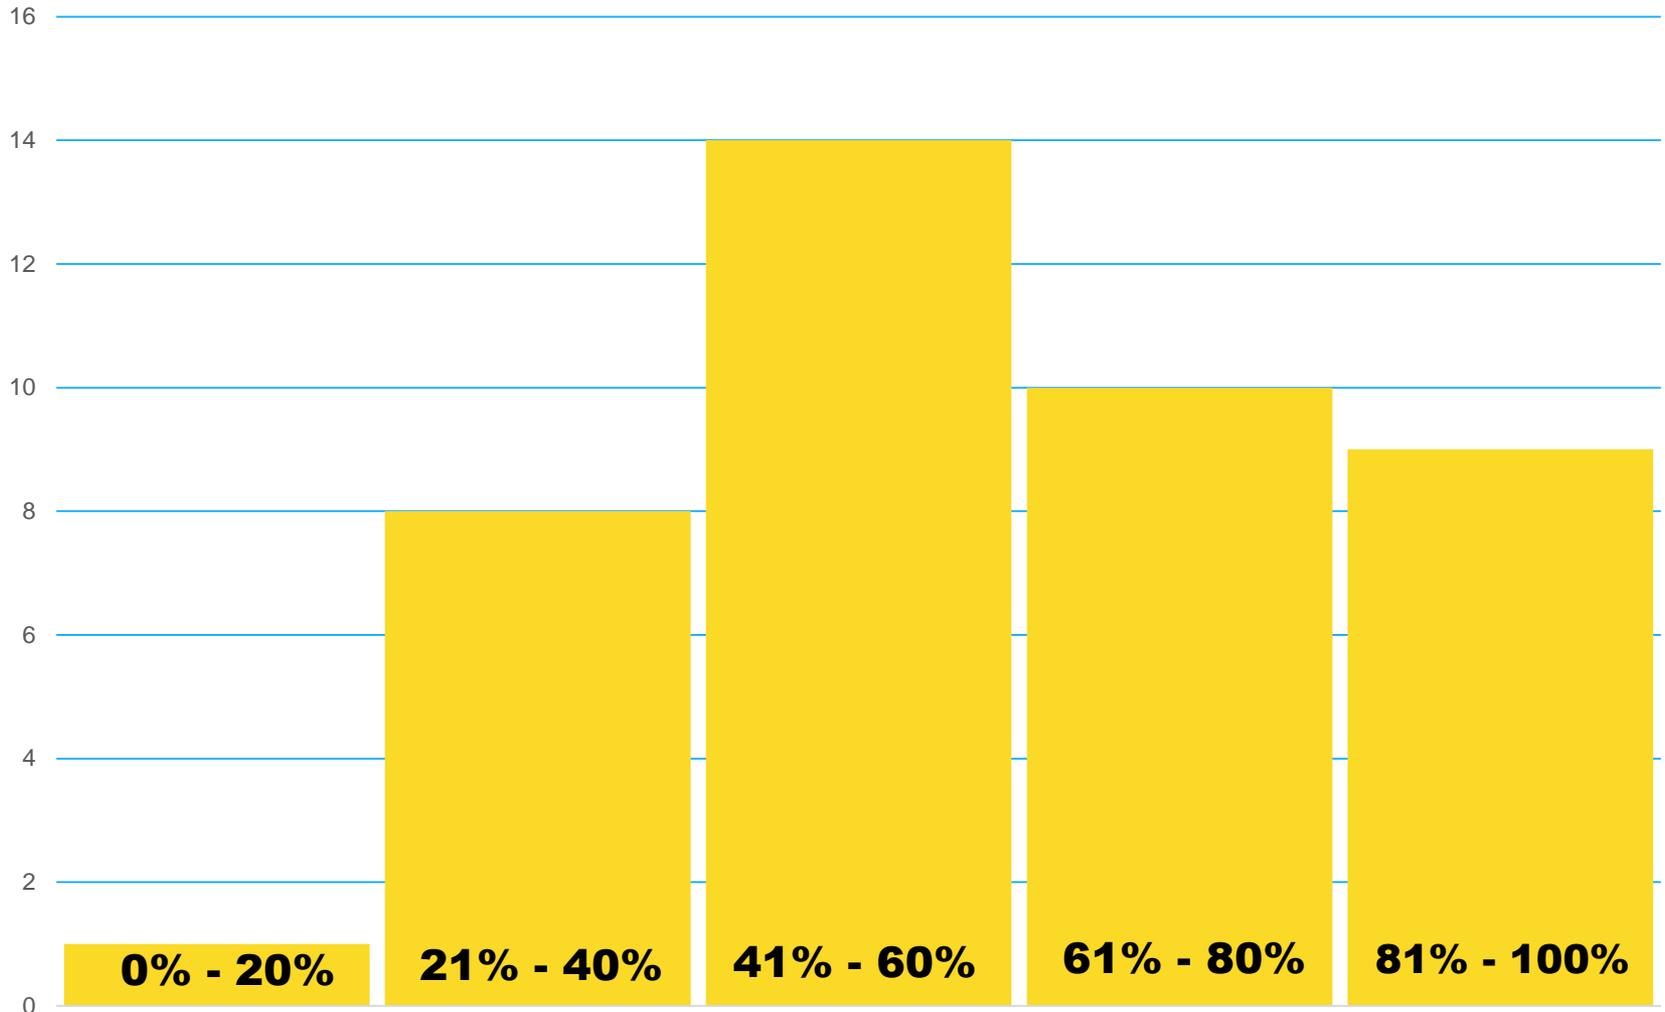

national parks

Nature education: What are we doing at home and abroad?
literature review

organisations

Outdoors activities

Nature education: What are we doing at home and abroad?
literature review

Birds

73.8%
do monitoring

Plants

Reptiles & Amphibians

Bees

Butterflies

Insects

Does your program use a teacher's guide or manual?

Nature education: What are we doing at home and abroad?
literature review

7.1%
developed apps

Nature education: What are we doing at home and abroad?
literature review

63.8%
of organisations
 have a brand for
 their education
 program

Nature education: What are we doing at home and abroad?
 literature review

Do you have a “Connection to nature”?

NO
78,6%

YES
21,4%

environmental

nature

bird

education

Nature education: What are we doing at home and abroad?
literature review

78.6% measure program's success

- Statistics
- Surveys
- Feedback from participants

Nature education: What are we doing at home and abroad?
literature review

What would you like to receive from this project?

Help on how to reach other age groups

advice on strategy, templates for strategy

advice
on evaluation

collaborations

Funding opportunities/Funding/Material

Help for new tech develop (eg apps, ...)

Reach more public

Marianna Colonna, BirdLife Europe Communication Team

marianna.Colonna@birdlife.org

